2018 Salt City Summit Hosted by the Junior League of Syracuse | Featuring Vicki Clark

Junior League of Syracuse

SALT CITY SUMM

October 5-6, 2018 CNY Philanthropy Center | 431 East Fayette Street, Suite 225, Second Floor

In support of the Junior League of Syracuse mission of developing our members and our community, the JLS is pleased to welcome Vicki Clark to Syracuse. A renowned speaker and trainer, Vicki engages hundreds of organizations and thousands of individuals each year with subjects including inclusion and diversity, leadership development, and more.

We invite you to join us for these free events:

Friday, October 5:

11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. - A Conversation on Inclusion and Diversity

Join the Junior League of Syracuse for a lunch and learn as Vicki speaks about the importance of inclusion and diversity in creating stronger organizations. This session will explore the role of diversity, inclusion, cultural competence and bias in moving the mission of your organization forward.

Saturday, October 6:

1:00-3:00 p.m. – Press for Progress: Developing the Potential of Women

Members of the JLS, regional Junior Leagues, and CNY women's and non-profit organizations will gather as Vicki speaks about women and leadership. This presentation will explore how women can further develop their potential, grow, learn, support each other, and press for progress.

More information on these sessions is available on the JLS website at bit.ly/2018-salt-city-summit. Light lunch will be provided for both opportunities.

Space is limited; kindly RSVP by September 28 by contacting the JLS office (office@jlsyracuse.org or 315.423.9773).
